

U.S. Junior Tours Selection Criteria

Selection

U.S. Junior Tours has specific acceptance criteria and is quite thorough in the selection of its team members.

USJT accepts only mature, responsible, dedicated athletes who are coachable and maintain a strong desire to excel. These young people need to be outstanding ambassadors who represent their countries, their schools, their families, and their hometowns with class and pride.

Qualifications

- Age appropriate at time of travel/program.
- A solid upstanding person that cares about others; is a good golfer, but more importantly is an outstanding human being.
- Have passion for the game of golf; have great desire to improve his/her knowledge and skill level; ready to challenge both his/her mental and physical attributes.
- Eager to travel and experience other countries and cultures.

U.S. Junior Tours Family Member Program

USJT Family Member Program

Parents, grandparents, siblings, friends, etc. wishing to travel with the group may do so by joining The USJT Family Member Program.

USJT Family Member Program participants experience all that the players do including matches, practices, attractions, sight-seeing, meals, accommodations, and ground transportation.

Accommodations are selected for their quality, safety, proximity to golf courses, and access to shopping, historical attractions, and restaurants.

Balloting for the Old Course

Balloting for St. Andrews Old Course (daily lottery for tee times) can be arranged and added to any Scotland itinerary. Over 50% of daily ballots are successful and there is no charge for balloting. Green fees (£160/$250) for the Old Course are not included.
